

IPOPI 9TH PID FORUM

GROWING OLDER WITH PIDs: ISSUES OF TRANSITIONAL CARE AND AGEING

THURSDAY 22 JUNE 2017 | 11:00 - 13:00

ROOM ASP3H1 | EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT | BRUSSELS

11.00 Welcome address

Dr Elena Gentile MEP, Committee on the Environment,
Public Health and Food Safety

11.05 Setting the scene

Leire Solis, IPOPI

11.10 EU actions on rare diseases

Dr Jarosław Waligóra, European Commission

11.20 EMRaDi: a field analysis of rare disease patient pathways

Alain Coheur, Solidaris Mutual Health Insurance (Belgium), Member of the EESC

11.30 Transition of care for primary immunodeficiency patients: from youth to adult

Patient perspective – Andrea Gressani, Association of Primary Immunodeficiencies, Italy

Nurse perspective – An Reniers, International Nursing Group for Immunodeficiencies

Physician perspective – Dr Nizar Malhaoui, Necker-Enfants Malades Hospital, France

12.00 Ageing with a primary immunodeficiency

Patient perspective – Janika Sundström, Primary Immunodeficiencies Patient Organisation, Finland

Physician perspective – Prof Martin Van Hagen, Erasmus MC

Social perspective – Dr Renate Heinisch, Federal Association of German Senior Citizens' Organisations, Member of the EESC

12.30 Discussion

12.55 Conclusions

Carlos Zorrinho MEP, Committee on the Environment,
Public Health and Food Safety